

swiss
peace

23.09.2024

Kaserne, Turmzimmer — 16h00-18h00

Universität
Basel

Forensic investigations of state violence and their implications for memory, justice and politics: the case of Brazil

With

Maria Amelia de Almedia Teles, Fernanda Miranda Cruz, Claudia Josi, Lorenza Mondada, Lisa Ott, & Edson Teles

Organized by the University of Basel, Dept. of Linguistics and Literature & swisspeace

Interventions in English and Portuguese with translation into English

- Program
- 16.00 Welcome by Lisa Ott (swisspeace)
- 16.05. Introduction by Lorenza Mondada (Dept of Linguistics, U. Basel)
- 16.10. Edson Teles (U. Fed. S. Paulo). After dictatorship: political conditions making forensic investigations possible
- 16.35. Maria Amelia de Almedia Teles (Comissão Familiares Mortos e Desaparecidos da Dictatura). From Witnessing to Documenting State Violence
- 17.05. Fernanda Miranda Cruz & Lorenza Mondada (U. Fed. S. Paulo, U. Basel). *Making Bones Talk: Forensic Experts at Work
- 17.25. Claudia Josi (swisspeace). A Practical Guide on disappeared persons in dealing with past processes
- 17.30. General Discussion
- 18.00. end.

[* interventions in Portuguese will be simultaneously translated in English]